William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Bill:

I just learned today from our mutual friend, [redacted] STAT
[redacted] that you will be addressing the American STAT
Legion's convention here in Chicago on Tuesday, August 24.

As you know, The Mid-America Committee has been trying to have you as our guest again and perhaps this would be a good time while you are in Chicago at the end of the month. We are very flexible and can arrange a breakfast, lunch or dinner either on the 24th or the day before or after, which ever is more convenient to your schedule. You may recall that our sessions are private, informal and off-the-record. Our members consist of the chief executive officers of the major international corporations and financial institutions based in the Midwest, all of whom know you. Some of our recent guests have included - Secretary of Defense Caspar Weinberger, Queen Beatrix of the Netherlands, Prince Hassan of Jordan, President Sandro Pertini of Italy and Ambassador Arthur Hartman. Background information is enclosed for your convenience.

I hope that you can meet with us on this visit, as it is most important that the leadership of the Midwest have an opportunity to be brought up-to-date on the many changes that have taken place at the C. I. A. under your leadership.

Best personal regards.

Sincerely,

Tom
